RAIL STRIKE ON; QUICK END IS UNLIKELY

A Buckeye Tree For Buckeye School

IT WAS "Buckeye" all the way round recently when a buckeye tree was planted at Buckeye school in, of course, the Buckeye state.
Honors of planting the tree went to winners in the Junior Garden Club's essay contest on trees. Mable Lou Hannay, shown holding a shovel-full of dirt, won first place and Mary Mercer, holding the tree, followed with honorable mention. Three winners were selected in each sixth grade of Salem's schools for final judging.

Besides Miss Hannay and Miss Mercer, the winners are, left to right: Walter Deming, Barbara Tausch and Larry Parker of Reilly; Jim Dennis, Willard Dunn and Katherine Todd of Prospect; Connie Perrine, Gary Painchaud and Marilyn Perrine of Junior High; Janet Williams and Joanne
Lewis, who with Mable, attend

Columbia; Carol Brautigam, Sally Allen and Marilyn Schaefer of Buckeye; Barbara Young and Patricia Ross, who attend McKinley school with Mary Mercer.
During a short ceremony Sally Allen of Buckeye congratulated the winners and Mrs. Raymond Stiver, chairman of the Junior Garden Club Committee of the Salem Garden Club, spoke in appreciation for the interest shown by the children.

Warren Teacher, 72 Sues To Retain Job

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—
The Ohio Supreme Court today heard arguments on whether the Warren board of education was legally bound to continue Charles A. Jacot in his teaching position in 1946. Jacot had passed the compulsory retirement age of 70 years and was then 72 years old.
The board refused to give Jacot a contract after completion of the 1945-46 school year because of his age. He sued to retain his position.
The common pleas court of Trumbull county upheld the board in retiring him. But the appellate court reversed and held that Jacot was entitled to a contract because of dereliction of the board in failing to give him notice of retirement in legal time.
Atty. Edwin L. Stanley of Youngstown represented Jacot at today's hearing. He contended that when the board of education failed to notify Jacot before March 31, 1946, that he was to be retired, Jacot's new contract of employment automatically came into effect.
City Solicitor Joseph J. Crachun, representing the board of education, argued that the teaching contract could not become effective before June 1.

Red Cross Drive Over Top By $1,215

In a busy meeting last night at the Memorial building the Red Cross board of directors heard the final report on the 1950 fund drive which brought $16,008 to the Salem chapter, of which 70.1 per cent will be retained for local work. Goal for the drive was $14,000.
Junior Red Cross delegates and chapter representatives who will attend the national convention June 26-29 in Detroit were announced. Lois Firestone, Bill Vogelhuber and Louise Bauman will represent the J. R. C., with Mrs. Thomas Mercer, chairman of Junior Red Cross, Mrs. Augusta
Ibele, Red Cross Nurse, and Miss Hazel Linn, executive secretary, as chapter representatives.
The board also voted to send two young men for a 10-day advanced swimming course in June at Camp Limberlost, Ind.
All Salem disaster units will meet soon with Bob Harrison, field director for the eastern area,
Bob Engel is the local Red Cross disaster head. E. S. Dawson presided at the session.

Firemen Complete Plans For First May Dance

Plans are completed for the Salem firemen's first annual May dance, to be held at 9 p. m. Friday in the V.F.W. ballroom. The dance is a benefit for the fire department.
Bob Nezbeth's orchestra will provide music. Tickets are on sale with members of the department. The public is invited.

17 Dead As Floods Swirl Over Midwest

Thousands Homeless;
N. Dakota, Minnesota,
Nebraska Hard Hit

Seventeen persons were dead or missing and more thousands were homeless today as the most damaging floods in years swept over three Midwest states.
Human misery rose in the flood areas of North Dakota, Minnesota and Nebraska. Scores of communities were isolated as the surging waters from rain-swollen rivers and streams spilled out over thousands of acres of land.

Across the border in southern Manitoba, the flood crisis mounted. The homeless was some 15-000, and another 10,000 faced evacuation.
All the fatalities were in Nebraska. One of the worst floods in nearly 50 years struck the southeastern section of the state yesterday. Seven bodies had been recovered. Hope was abandoned for 10 others.
The flash floods that hit southeast Nebraska followed downpours earlier in the week. The waves of water engulfed homes and swept cars from highways.
Most of the dead were highway travelers.
Seven or eight passengers in a Burlington bus enroute from Nebraska City to Lincoln were caught in a crushing wave of water on a highway near Unadilla.
Four Nebraska City persons lost their lives when their car was swept from a highway.
The flooding Red River, bordering North Dakota and Minnesota, dealt further devastating blows to property and livestock.
Some other streams in northern Minnesota also were running wild. The Red Cross reported more families driven from their homes all along the swollen Red River.
The livestock situation in North Dakota was described as "desperate." Gov. Fred G. Aandahl ordered an aerial livestock feeding service.
Damage to highways from the floods in Grand Forks county alone was estimated at nearly $1,500,000.
In north Minnesota, floodwaters menaced Little Fork and Floodwood. The Red Cross set up hundreds of cots in a new unoccupied creamery building, to care for some 350 of Floodwood's 600 residents who were driven from their homes by the St. Louis River.

Federal Tax On Race Betfing Is Rejected

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—
The House ways and means committee today rejected a proposal to put a $70,000,000 to $80-000,000 a year federal excise tax on horse race betting.
The proposal would have imposed a 5 per cent tax on the approximately $1,500,000,000 bet annually through pari-mutuel machines. The Administration had made no recommendation on such a tax.
A committee spokesman told a reporter the proposal was rejected primarily because the committee members did not want the federal government to encroach on this source that is used by some states to get a substantial part of their revenue.
Also, it was pointed out that no such proposal was made during the long committee hearings on tax legislation.
The committee now is seeking to find new revenue sources to offset cuts of over $1,000,000,000 it wants to make in excise taxes.
President Truman has warned that this must be done or he will veto the tax bill.

Legion Will Observe I Am An American Day

"I Am An American Day" will be observed by Charles H. Carey
Post, American Legion, at 2 p. m.
Sunday, May 21, in the Salem
High School auditorium.
John Herman, Jr., is chairman of the affair. The program will include a concert by the American Legion Quaker City Band and talks by Congressman Wayne Hays and Common Pleas Judge
Joel H. Sharp of Salem.

French Suggest Coal, Steel Pool

Merger With Germans
May Solve Problem

LONDON, May 10—(AP)—A French proposal to pool Europe's coal and steel was seen here today as a possible solution to a major cold war problem facing the West—how to integrate Germany's economy into the Western front.
Western diplomats here for the Big Three talks beginning tomorrow call such German cooperation the most important step necessary to bolster the West against Russia.
Announcing the plan approved by the French cabinet, Foreign Minister Robert Schuman proposed that the pooling start with France's own rich Lorraine and Saar areas and Germany's industrial Ruhr valley.
West Germany's Chancellor
Konrad Adenauer quickly termed the proposal a "generous step by France towards Germany."
The French plan, he continued, appeared to "create the pre-conditions for making any future conflict between France and Germany impossible."
At the same time Adenauer announced his government already was planning a step toward participation in European unity.
Adenauer said his cabinet had accepted an invitation for West Germany to enter the Council of Europe as an associate member.
It would have an advisory status in the Council's consultative assembly but would not be represented on the controlling committee of foreign ministers.

Taft, Wherry Differ On FEPC Debate Limit

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—
Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.) disagree on just when to take the first step toward choking off Senate debate on a proposed Fair Employment Practices Commission.
Taft, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, told a reporter he would support the proposal of Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill.) to file a cloture (debate limiting) petition Monday, with a showdown vote next Wednesday.
Wherry, the GOP floor leader, said in a separate interview that action Monday would be too early.
"I think we should have full and fair debate before any clo-ture attempt is made," Wherry added. "This thing should be aired completely."
Lucas has passed the word to Administration Democrats that he may ask a test next Wednesday on President Truman's request for a federal commission to prohibit job discrimination because of race, religion or national origin.
Senator Russell (D-Ga.), floor manager for the bloc of southerners who are fighting FEPC, said he would battle any attempt for a quick gag "as vigorously as I know how."

Bernard, Gibson Given Leetonia Coach Jobs

Joe Bernard of Leetonia and Bobby Gibson of Youngstown, both Youngstown college footbalplayers for the past three years, have been hired as coaches at Leetonia High School.
Gibson was appointed head football and basketball mentor, with Bernard as his assistant in both sports. The two men will assume their duties on Aug. 20.
They replace Harold Mauro and A. J. Mruzik at Leetonia High.
Meanwhile, at Wellsville, Coach Mike Rodak announced today that he has signed as head football coach at Mingo Junction High. He resigned, effective at the end of the school year, after two years at Wellsville. He has an overall record of five wins, 13 losses and one tie at the latter school.

Trucks Carry Mail As Last Trains Leave Salem Station

Mail truck routes, set up in advance of the pending railroad strike, were pressed into service today as the trains came to a halt.
Postoffice officials said the mail would be received and dispatched as quickly as possible, with truck routes linking Salem to all cities east, west, north and south.
The last Pennsylvania railroad passenger train to stop here this morning, at 6:50, was Train No.

39, enroute from New York to Cleveland. An express and two freights managed to continue through east-bound to Pittsburgh shortly before 10 a. m.
Station Agent W. C. Kooman said ticket offices of the Pennsylvania railroad were shut down at Leetonia, Columbiana and East Palestine today and that the Salem station would close Friday unless the strike is settled beforehand.
He will remain on duty but all other personnel will be laid off.
Four new mail truck routes were added to the already-existing Star Routes to transport letter mail, Postmaster L. D. Beardmore announced.
One truck at 2 a. m. brings mail from Cleveland via Ravenna, while another gets here from Canton at 5:30 a. m. and goes on to Columbiana and East Palestine.
An afternoon truck leaves here at 8 for Ravenna and Cleveland, while the last westbound truck leaves the Salem postoffice for Alliance and Canton at 6:15.

Loyalty File Check Begins

Senate Group Sees
Data On Accused 81

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—
Senate investigators got their first look today at loyalty files on 81 persons named by Senator McCarthy in his charges of communist in the government.
Four members of the Senate foreign relations subcommittee began looking them over at the White House shortly before 10
a. m. They were Chairman Tydings (D-MD) and Senators Mc-Mahon (D-Conn.), Green (D-R I.) and Lodge (R-Mass.).
Eben Ayers, assistant White House press secretary, said the files were brought to the White House executive offices about an hour before the Senators arrived.
Before he went to the White House, Tydings told reporters it was his understanding that the files "contain not only all of the data which the State Department investigators have assembled but also all the loyalty data which the FBI has gathered and referred to the State Department, and which the FBI has been made a part of these files."
Tydings said the committee members intend to pursue the examination of the files "with all diligence possible commensurate with our other duties in Congress."
Tydings has estimated checking on files will take about a month.

Dr. Sander Ousted By County Society

MILFORD, N. H., May 10—(AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander was dropped from membership last night by the Hillsboro County Medical Society.
A terse statement issued by Dr. Lloyd L. Wells of Manchester, secretary of the Society, said:
"At a meeting of the Hillsboro County Medical Society it was voted that Hermann N. Sander is no longer a member of the Society." About 100 of the group's 175 members attended.
Dr. Wells refused to amplify the brief statement but it was believed the action was almost automatic in the wake of the State Medical Board's revocation last April 19 of the Canada physician's right to practice medicine in this state.
The 41-year-old doctor was acquitted last March 9 of murder in the death of his cancer-ridden patient, Mrs. Abbie C. Borroto, 59, of Manchester. The state charged he killed her by air injections but Dr. Sander's counsel argued that she was already dead.
Dr. Sander has indicated he will apply for reinstatement of his license after June 19.

Rail Strike Won't Hamper Truman Trip

CHICAGO, May 10—(AP)—
President Truman's cross country train trip apparently will not be interrupted by the Railroad Firemen's strike which began today.
David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen, said recently
"special instructions" had been issued to union members to see to it that the presidential train is moved "safely and expeditiously."
The presidential train was in Idaho today. The President will return eastward for a Chicago speech set for May 15.

Negotiations Ended; 4 Big Systems Idled

100,000 Workers Off;
'Package' Proposal
Is Turned Down

CHICAGO, May 10—(AP)—A strike of railroad firemen crippled the nation's rail network today and within a few hours mediators abandoned hope of quick settlement.
Francis A. O'Neill, chairman of the National (Railway) Mediation Board said "we've given up."
He added that a report on the deadlock will be submitted to Washington.
The board has tried in continuous sessions since 9 p. m. CDT last night to reach some agreement.
Asked what the next step would be, O'Neill replied "I can't say until we make our report to Washington." He added:
"We have been unable to get anywhere. For the last three or four days we have been working on a 'package' deal with the brotherhood." He declined to say what the "package" contained.
The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, one of the five big operating unions, struck against four key systems in the nation's rail network at 6
a. m. local standard time today.
Their walkout was to enforce demands for hiring a second fireman on multiple Diesel unit locomotives. The railroads, whose contention had been upheld by presidential fact finding boards, maintained this constituted "made work" and that as the second fireman would be unneeded on a Diesel which has no fire to tend.
The brotherhood insisted the man should be added as a safety measure. Union leaders said their men were being disciplined continually for leaving the locomotive cab to tend engines in another unit of the locomotive.
They claimed this meant the carriers expected one fireman to be in two places at once.
Before O'Neill mentioned the "package" deal, Rob Allie, secretary of the Michigan Association of Railroads, said he was informed all demands of the Brotherhood had been settled except one for assignment of a fireman to switches of less than 90,000 pounds.
O'Neill said no further sessions were scheduled and added:
"If either side wants to resume talks they can notify me."
Union spokesmen said that some 90 per cent of the affected lines are in the Eastern and Central time zones.
They added that some 50,000 to 100,000 other railroad workers would be made idle by the walkout. The number of idle, they said, would increase if the strike continues.
The long dispute is over the union's demand for a second fireman on all multiple unit Diesel locomotives. The roads refused to grant the demand.
Spokesmen said the demand would cost the roads $40,000,000 a year. Two presidential fact-finding boards also rejected the union's demand.
The union originally had scheduled a strike for April 26. But the walkout was postponed for two weeks upon request of the Mediation Board. During the two weeks, the board attempted to settle the dispute.
In anticipation of the strike, the four railroads announced stringent service curtailments.
And, they said, further cuts in their schedules were planned.
The New York Central and the Santa Fe planned to keep some main line passenger trains in operation. The other two, the Pennsylvania and the Southern Railway, said no trains would be run in the strike-affected areas.

Homing Device Aids U. S. Missiles—Vinson

WASHINGTON, May 10—(IN-S)—Rep. Vinson (D) of Georgia disclosed today that the United States has perfected a guided missile with a "homing device" which can destroy planes in the air.
The chairman of the House Armed Services Committee stated that the Navy has a guided missile which is attracted to planes while in flight.

Landmark Sold Terminal Tower, Five Nearby Buildings, Go To Columbus Man

CLEVELAND, May 10—(AP)—Terminal Tower, the tallest skyscraper outside New York City, and five other buildings near Cleveland's Public Square today were part of the real estate empire of John Wilmer Galbreath of Columbus.

The 52-year-old Galbreath, who owns a chunk of the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball team and a string of thoroughbred racing horses in addition to being a property tycoon, closed the multi-million dollar deal here yesterday.

No purchase price was given, but the buildings involved are valued at about $25,000,000. Galbreath reportedly acquired the majority of stock in the Cleveland Terminal group of buildings in a cash transaction.

Seller were Pathe Industries, Inc., Robert R. Young, chairman of the Board of Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co., and Allan P. Kirby, president of Allegheny Corp., a holding company.

The buildings involved—all of which were either built or projected in 1930 by the Van Sweringen Brothers, O. P. and M. J.—are:

Terminal Tower, a 52-story, 700-foot tall building with an underground railroad terminal serving all passenger lines coming into Cleveland except the Pennsylvania railroad. The railroad station itself was not included in the sale.

Hotel Cleveland, located next to the Terminal on the southwest corner of the Square. It has 1,000 rooms.

The Republic, Guildhall and Midland buildings on the south side of Prospect Ave., immediately in the rear of the Guildhall building on Huron road.

The office buildings, which have more than 2,000,000 square feet of space house 280 tenants. They rank next to Radio City, New York, as the second largest integrated group of such buildings in the world.

Remember, May 14 Is 'M-Day'

to 5 to consider tomorrow morning the question of overriding their chairman and reinstating Jacobs' group.

Rep. Velde (R-Ill.), a member said all Republicans on the committee would back the reinstatement move.

If the full 25-man committee in the end backs Jacobs, it will be the second time it has rebuked the chairman on the same issue.

Flood Control Bill May Be Vetoed

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Reports persisted today that President Truman may veto the bill authorizing flood control and navigation projects estimated to cost $1,730,000,000.

Senator Magnuson (D-Wash.) said "there have been some hints that the bill might be vetoed."

"The President has the bill with him on his Western trip," Magnuson told a reporter, "and I have asked him to delay action until after I confer with him."

"I understand the White House does not like the bill because the Senate failed to include in it the provision for setting up a Columbia basin account to handle the finances of the present and future projects in the Columbia River basin in the Pacific Northwest."

Seaway Vital, Lehman Says

Refusal To Build Would Be Wasteful

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Senator Lehman (D-Lib-NY) said today that it is "sheer wastefulness and extravagance" not to build the St. Lawrence seaway and power project.

Lehman, pleading for the long-discussed development before a congressional committee that has already announced it will not take action this year on legislation to authorize the project, said:

"To refuse this for sectional or narrow economic reasons is to display disrespect for the ultimate interests of our country."

"To my mind such an attitude is incredible and, in view of the dangers which face us in the world today, unpatriotic."

He said in testimony for the House public works committee he could not comprehend "any substantial reasons" for blocking further the estimated $800,000,000 dual purpose project.

The three-time New York governor said development of the St. Lawrence would extend benefits to 40,000,000 Americans.

"I cannot see," he said, "why the objections of a few port cities and the railroads, who mistakenly fear that the seaway would deprive them of some benefits which they now enjoy, should be allowed to halt congressional action."

He said the vast commerce that passes through the MacArthur locks at Sault Ste. Marie—"greater than the commerce that passes through the Suez, Panama and Kiel canals all put together—is hobbled from passing freely to and from the Atlantic seaboard."

The bloc or, as Lehman described it—"an Iron Curtain"—is in the rock ledges of the International rapids section of the river.

It is in that section that the river would be harnessed for power and the 27-foot canal built to permit ocean-going shipping to navigate from the head of the Great Lakes to the Atlantic.

Porter Tricked; Hotel Statler Is Sued

CLEVELAND, May 10—(AP)—Two Newark, N. J. wholesale jewelry companies have sued the Hotel Statler Co. for $47,130, charging a hotel porter was tricked into giving a thief jewels and watches worth that amount two years ago.

A Cleveland jewelry concern, the Danford-Lowell Co., was named co-defendant with the hotel in the suit by the Cresarrow Watch Co. and the Henry Blank Co.

Henry Blank left a sample case of jewels at the jewelry store on May 14, 1948, when he went to lunch with Otto Danford, a partner in the local jewelry store.

A thief telephoned the store, pretending to be Blank and ordered the sample case and a topcoat he left there given to a Hotel Statler porter. The porter got the case and unwittingly turned it over to the thieves.

Blank's concern said it owned $37,964 worth of the jewelry, and Cresarrow Co. listed its loss at $9,165.

McCarthy May Name Envoy

Will Publicize Name If Committee Resists

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Senator McCarthy said today he may name in the Senate the United States envoy he has accused of being a foreign agent.

It all depends, the Wisconsin Republican told reporters, on the Senate foreign relations subcommittee which is investigating his charges of communism in the State Department.

"If the committee shows any semblance of really looking into this case, (of the envoy), then there won't be any need to name him publicly," McCarthy said.

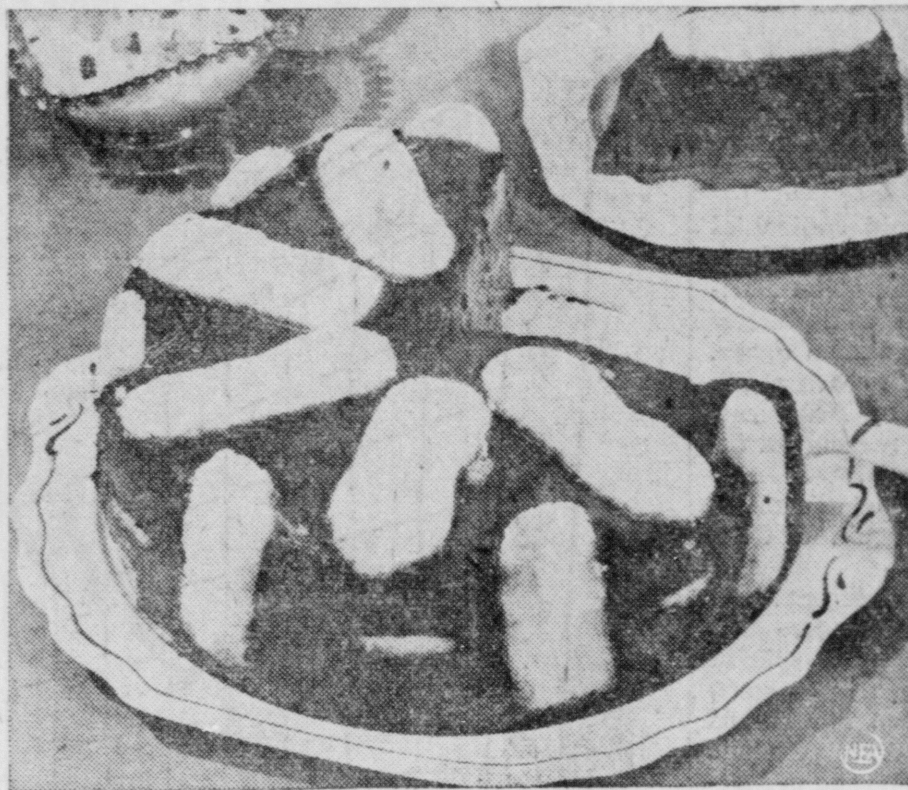

"But if I get resistance from the committee, I will present the case as best I can on the Senate floor and name the man."

McCarthy added that he had outlined "only a minor part of the case" in a Senate speech last Feb. 20. At that time he discussed the envoy—without naming him—as case No. 2 among a total of 81 persons he accused of being either Communists, fellow travelers, or otherwise bad security risks.

President Truman, reversing his previous position, agreed last week to let the inquiry committee examine the State Department files on those 81 persons.

The State Department was reported ready today to turn over the files in the 81 cases to the Senate investigating group.

The committee scheduled another meeting behind closed doors today.

"LADY FINGER DREAM" makes a wonderful surprise dessert for Mom on Mother's Day.

The Cookbook

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Here's A Treat For Mother's Day

HERE'S an easy "special" dessert any teen-age daughter or son can make. It's a wonderful surprise for her on Mother's Day—handsome, delicate and delicious.

Bits Lady Finger Dream (Serves 6)

Combine in top of double boiler and cook over low heat, stirring constantly until chocolate is melted: one package (1 cup) chocolate bits, 2 cups milk, ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt. Beat with rotary beater until blended.

Combine and let stand for 5 minutes: one tablespoon unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup cold water.

Slowly stir a little of the milk mixture into 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten. Stir into remaining milk mixture and cook over hot, not boiling, water until slightly thickened (4 to 5 minutes). Add, and stir until dissolved the softened gelatin. Chill until mixture begins to set. When almost set fold in 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Line round pan with lady fingers. Fill with chocolate mixture. Chill until firm.

Top with whipped cream if desired. Note: For a party, or large group of people, double the recipe and mold in an 8-inch spring form.

For a supper party in honor of mother on Mother's Day, here's an easy but delicious and different ham mold.

Ham Mold, New Orleans Style (Makes 6 servings)

One envelope plain gelatin, ¼ cup water, one 3-ounce package cream cheese, one 10½-ounce can condensed chicken gumbo soup, 1 cup ground cooked ham, ¼ cup salad dressing or mayonnaise.

Soften gelatin in water. Place cream cheese in a saucepan. Stir to soften. Slowly add soup and mix well. Heat until cheese is blended. Add gelatin, then stir until dissolved. Cool. Fold in ham and mayonnaise. Pour into greased molds. Chill until firm. (NEA Service, Inc.)

When you are broiling steak or chops for dinner choose vegetables that can be broiled along with the meat. This saves time, dishwashing and fuel.

Lorin Reeder Leaves China For America

KENSINGTON, May 10—Lorin G. Reeder, a technician with the State Department in Shanghai, China, whose return to this country was halted by Communist authorities in March, is now aboard the General Jordon, destined for California.

Mrs. Sharon Green of Kensington, daughter of Mr. Reeder, received a radiogram from her father stating that he is safely aboard ship and expects to dock in this country May 22.

Mr. Reeder, formerly of Kensington, was aboard the General Jordon with approximately 1,600 other Americans and members of the diplomatic staff when the Communists objected and the ship departed without them.

Serving as a technician and photographer at the Department of State's Information Service offices in Shanghai, he had been in charge of all printing and photographic processing there since 1945 and was official photographer for the U.S. Embassy. He was sent to China by the Office of War Information in June, 1943. Wine Is a Mockery; Strong Drink is raging, don't be deceived."—God's word. Ad.

States Rights Leaders Pledge Battle To Halt Fair Deal

JACKSON, Miss., May 10—(AP)—States Rights leaders pledged today an all-out, two-year fight to stifle President Truman's Fair Deal program.

They approved such a stand for submission this afternoon to the third annual National States Rights meeting.

Resolutions endorsed last night by the executive committee raked what it terms the "Truman welfare state" and advocate a South-wide rebellion against it.

Delegates for today's meeting are expected from 14 states including several thousand Mississippians.

Many of the home states already are keyed up by Senator Harry F. Byrd's blistering attack at Cleveland, Miss., against "heading down the road to Socialism."

The executive committee also adopted an ambitious plan for precinct-by-precinct organization in a fight for full control of all deep-South states.

They believe this would give them the balance of power in the 1952 Democratic convention.

One of their chief pangs in a "grass roots" organizing plan was outlined by a group of Baylor University students from Waco, Texas.

7 Children Attend Party For Jodale Kilbreath

To celebrate the fourth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Jodale, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kilbreath entertained seven children Sunday afternoon in their home, E. Fifth st.

Games were played, with prizes going to each child. Their names are Penny Belan, Bonnie Kay Youtz, Lois and Joyce Whinnery, Robert Topton, Kay L. Lynn, John Allyn Shasteen and Jodale.

Lunch was served at a beautifully appointed table. The cake had "circus animals" around the top edge to represent a merry-go-round. Mrs. Homer Ferguson and Mrs. Jess Youtz assisted the hostess in serving.

Pictures were taken of the children. Jodale received many gifts.

The 1950 Party Line

INSTEAD of sticking to his 1948 campaign tactics of "giving 'em hell," Mr. Truman has put a new party line on display in his speeches en route to the Pacific coast.

He is promising to give 'em everything. First, of course, it would have to be taken away from them—but that is not mentioned.

At Casper, Wyoming, he defended his philosophy of government control of all private resources with a bitter attack on private enterprise. He tried to make it appear that the welfare of the United States had been grossly neglected up to the time that the New Deal stepped in to take charge.

It is fruitless to argue with people who assume this position, but to justify it they should be prepared to explain one thing:

How did the United States happen to become a wealthy nation if it was on the wrong track from its beginning to the advent of the New Deal?

When that question has been answered, another one follows:

What can be pointed to as proof that big-government advocates are likely to produce more wealth in the long run than the advocates of private enterprise have been?

No one claims that private enterprise has not been shortsighted in many instances, that it has not made mistakes, and that it will not make more mistakes. But the New Dealers, both the original article and the second and third editions of the original article, claim that they are the ultimate wise men of all time, and the record does not bear them out. Individually and collectively, they have proved themselves capable of as many bonehead plays as anyone else trying to play the role of the Almighty with an improvised script and no rehearsal.

The party line being laid down by Mr. Truman isn't new. Only the twistings and turnings are new. Essentially it's the same old idea of putting politicians and their appointees in charge of everything on the bogus claim that they are smarter than the people who have been smart enough to produce the wealth the politicians are itching to spend. And it has the same built-in irony. Because if the politicians ever had their way they would promptly run out of the wherewithal that has been keeping them in business and making their spend-and-elect strategy look good. They would barbecue the goose that lays the golden eggs.

No Action Yet

PREPARATION of cases against persons who have filed non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley Act under circumstances suggesting perjury has been grossly neglected by the Department of Justice. It may be that the department was waiting for the U.S. Supreme Court to rule on the constitutionality of the oath required to qualify for participation in the benefits of the Taft-Hartley Act.

The court's decision now has been made. The constitutionality of the non-Communist oath has been upheld. Officers of upward of a half-dozen unions are in potential danger of facing action for perjury, though it is probable they already have taken advantage of a possible loophole in the law itself. That is the fact the oath is confined to present membership in the Communist party—"I am not a member of the Communist party, or affiliated with such party." They could have withdrawn from membership in order to qualify under the oath.

However, the rest of the oath reads: "I do not believe in, and I am not a member of, nor do I support, any organization that believes in or teaches the overthrow of the United States government by force or by illegal or unconstitutional methods." Even a "former" Communist would have trouble talking himself out of that corner, if and when the Department of Justice ever decided to enforce the Taft-Hartley Act's oath of loyalty to the United States.

Travel Is Expensive

IF YOU have a map of the United States handy, come along on a little trip with a B-36 auxiliary jet engine from its first assembly to final installation in the big bomber.

Part of the engine is built by an aircraft firm in San Diego, Calif. Then it's shipped to another manufacturer at Niagara Falls, N. Y. A pretty complete unit by this time, it's dispatched down to Fort Worth, Tex., where it goes into the B-36.

That's a 4,000-mile tour for the auxiliary jet. If any of the rest of the plane travels about the country like that before final assembly, it's no wonder the B-36 price tag comes to $4,000,000.

It's bad enough to wait for your bath in a boarding house without having to listen to some one sing.

If peace costs more than we can afford, and war is even more expensive, the only conceivable out is a new kind of arithmetic.

A Warm Up

By PETER EDSON

Truman's Tour Points To November Fight

WASHINGTON
PRESIDENT Harry S. Truman has taken to the western road under somewhat confused political circumstances. It is scheduled as a non-political junket. But the President of the United States can't do anything without its having some political significance.

After six years in office, the President and his Fair Deal program have gotten nowhere. The record of the 81st Congress is not good. Though it still has 60 or 90 days to go, the Senate is headed for another FEPC filibuster in which little will be accomplished.

Sen. Claude Pepper has been defeated in the Florida primary. Sen. Lister Hill won renomination easily in Alabama, but the Dixiecrats are still a major administration annoyance. Finally, ex-Gov. Harold E. Stassen has characterized Truman as "a clever politician, but the worst President"—a phrase that may stick and may hurt.

To all these bad political omens, there is a Democratic answer. Blame for lack of progress on the President's program in Congress is put upon the Southern Democrats who have teamed up with the Republicans to defeat or stymie many administration measures.

Some of the President's political advisers are coaching him to come out swinging against the Dixiecrats on his present tour. The Northern Democrats licked the Dixiecrats at Philadelphia in 1948, but they haven't stayed licked. It may take another Philadelphia showdown, say the regulars, to give them the party control they want.

DEMOCRATIC spokesmen claim that Senator Pepper's defeat in the Florida primary was no great setback for President Truman. They recall now — though no mention was made of it during the campaign — that Pepper was against Truman at Philadelphia. First Pepper made a number of pro-Eisenhower statements. Then for about 24 hours, Pepper was himself a candidate against Truman.

Senator Pepper was never entirely forgiven for this rebellion, even though he did later endorse the Fair Deal. But if Representative Smathers, who defeated Pepper, continues his anti-Truman primary campaign line, it is fairly obvious that the administration would have preferred to see Pepper win.

What hurts the Truman administration worse than the Pepper defeat, however, is the strong showing made by the Dixiecrats in their fight to hold control of the Alabama political machine's executive committee. The Truman administration is powerless as long as such opposition exists.

Governor Stassen's crack at the President is taken by Democrats in Washington as merely an indication that Stassen, who now heads University of Pennsylvania, is himself again a GOP candidate.

As for Stassen's statement that "the plans for Grand Coulee dam were prepared under President Hoover," there seems to be some difference of opinion. The record seems to indicate that the plans were prepared by Bureau of Reclamation under Interior Secretary Harold Ickes, who authorized construction as a PWA project.

Grand Coulee construction was begun in December 1933. It got most of its congressional support from Republican Sen. Charles McNary. On that schedule, Hoover may never even have seen the plans.

THE non-political reason, or excuse, for President Truman's trip west at this time is to dedicate completion of installation of the last generating unit at Grand Coulee, and to dedicate Kortes Dam, in Wyoming. The President won't actually go to Kortes Dam, which won't really be completed for another few months. The road to the dam site isn't good, and bad weather might throw off the whole trip schedule. So the President will do his dedicating at Casper, Wyo., 80 miles away. He can of course draw a bigger crowd there.

The President makes this dam trip at the invitation of Interior Secretary Oscar Chapman. At Casper, the President will be able to get in a plug for the Missouri Valley development. At Grand Coulee he can get in a plug for Columbia Valley Authority.

Any political talks the President makes at whistle stops in between and on the way back are so much additional gravy. And the fact that the tour winds up at Chicago with a big speech climaxing a three-day Democratic National Committee and Cabinet rally makes the whole enterprise a political undertaking. Or at least it opens the 1950 season by tossing out the first hats.

The President won't get really politically hot, however, until along about September. In the two months before the November elections, he is expected to hit many close contest states. The purpose, of course, is to influence election of an 82nd Congress which will be more to his liking than the Eighty-Worst.

In The Open Air

By TRUMAN TWILL

THIS is a confession of embarrassment. For years this column has been nagging on the general topic of picnics, because its conductor could not understand why people deliberately abandoned the comforts of home to endure the discomforts of eating in the open air. Its conductor still cannot understand picnics as such.

But he is aware that in his own attitude he has let down a barrier of prejudice against eating in the open air—and this promises to become a difficult thing to explain. It is going to be embarrassing when critics chortle, "We thought you didn't like picnics, yet you are having a picnic."

This will come about sooner or later when someone catches him having what looks like a picnic, insofar as he is eating in the open air. Therefore, the defense is going to be made before the accusation, on the theory that a stitch in time may avert an argument.

It merely has been discovered that under certain circumstances there is a legitimate excuse for not eating in the orthodox manner in the usual place; that under these circumstances it is more pleasant to pick up one's plate, cup and hardware and go sit under a tree. Obviously, this is not a picnic.

It is nothing more or less than a buffet lunch with no limits. The food has been prepared in the kitchen. The consumer has had the advantage of helping himself to it under the circumstances of civilization. When he is through eating, he can return to a davenport or bed and sleep it off.

He does not have to play pack-horse for a load of culinary equipment, rustle up wood to keep a fire going, or keep an eye peeled for poison ivy. He does not have to expend his energy in pastimes he is too old to enjoy, such as playing ball, leap frog or drop-the-handkerchief. He does not have to wish he had brought along his bottle of insect repellent, his cough syrup, or his sedatives. They are all within easy reach.

Meanwhile, he has had the advantage of eating in the open air; i.e., he has moved out of the range of mealtime worries and perplexities. While this may entail a journey of half a mile, it's worth the trip. Let no carping critics who may happen to come upon the conductor of this column hiding under a clump of elders while gnawing at a pork chop this summer jump at the conclusion there has been any change of policy about picnics.

It just so happens that he has taken his buffet luncheon to a remote point, to consume it in solitude in the open air. This is because he is backing the St. Louis Browns for the American League pennant in 1950 and cannot bear to hear vicious attacks on his sanity. He is as sane as anyone who happens to think the Browns are the berries and is entitled to peace and quiet while musing on a proposition that threatens to keep him in the open air for a long time to come.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

BEFORE leaving Washington, Mr. Truman took the usual oath . . . "I am not now and never have been on a political trip."

But it seemed funny to see the signs on the car reading "non-partisan or bust."

Anyway, it's nice to know that the President is not alarmed about peace prospects for the country, although several generals appear to be disturbed . . . particularly General Motors.

Reuther hasn't quite gotten to the point of threatening to build an automobile but he has indicated that it would be best to run the industry his way.

Chrysler workers are happy to be back today with their pension-at-65 finally worked out . . . some of the younger ones thought they were going to be out until they were 65.

How's Business?

'Equity Capital' Step In Right Direction

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON
PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S message to Congress recommending that "equity capital" and credit loans be made available to business through a new system of loan insurance and investment institutions goes to the heart of a problem which, in one form or another, has been before Congress ever since the depression of 1929-1933.

In the melee of crusades and criticism, the so-called "bank affiliate" — the companies which were affiliated with banks and did much of the financing of American enterprises in the 1920's — were abolished. They have never been followed by any constructive substitutes. There has been a recurrent outcry since that some means should be provided to assure equity capital for the enterprises not big enough to warrant national attention through the flotation of stock issues.

Even the real estate loans made

This deficiency has led radicals to make many a proposal for government financing or government ownership.

But Mr. Truman comes forward now with something which he and his advisers have striven to formulate in such a manner as to take the government itself out of the loan business and to put the burden on private financing with government coordination and government insurance as a stopgap.

BROADLY speaking, banks have hesitated for years to extend credits that are in fact capital loans. They have felt, and rightly so, that demand deposits should not be so used. But at the same time large loans in commercial financing have been syndicated by the banks or taken in their entirety by insurance companies. Likewise, although frowned upon in early years, installment financing of automobiles and many household products is now an orthodox credit device. There was a time when banks did not like installment financing.

Even the real estate loans made

under the so-called insured plan, whereby banks have made housing loans or have participated in the making of mortgage loans along with governmental agencies, are really of recent origin.

When the President, therefore, comes forward with what he calls a "pioneer undertaking" in the financing of business, it is natural that first reports should say that bankers are cool to the idea. As they examine and study it, perhaps making alternate suggestions, it may turn out to be the very thing that will increase the earnings of the banks without any such risks as would be involved in individual transactions as contrasted with group risks.

THE PRINCIPLE of insuring a lot of loans through an overall agency makes it possible for the income from the premiums and the interest on the successful loans to offset any that may go sour.

The plan has several parts. One relates solely to loans of $25,000 or less which would run for five years. No one in the government would pass on such loans and the banks would take a minority percentage risk while the government took the major percentage risk.

The second part of the plan is even more important. It proposes that "national investment companies" be set up in which the banks and private investors could invest. The major purpose of these companies, as the President phrases it, "would be to provide equity capital and long-term loans for efficiently-managed businesses unable to finance themselves on reasonable terms through the organized securities markets."

Actually the public and banks would invest in the national investment companies — buying their bonds — while the companies would, in turn, finance the equity capital needs of worthy businesses. There is no limit placed here as to size of loans but it is assumed that the plan will primarily take care of the needs of business ranging from $25,000 to $1,000,000. This is the bracket of financing about which there has been considerable discussion in recent years, and the President says this phase of his plan "is designed to fill the most serious remaining gap in the business financial structure."

COINCIDENT with these developments, the President proposes that both the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Federal Reserve Bank authority to make business loans be cut down, so that the latter may be abolished altogether and the former would be retained only for those rare cases where private investment companies find themselves unable to do the financing and yet where credit extension of large size may be needed.

The whole plan is designed to maintain a private-enterprise system of credit. It is the first important move toward the "right" in financing technique which the Truman administration has made, and it would be most unfortunate if consideration of such a plan became involved in partisan politics just because the President happens to sponsor it. # Channel Swim

By INEZ ROBB

Pierre Advises Shirley Mae

NEW YORK

FLASH!

Pierre Cillon, native Californian who broke all records last October when he swam the English channel in five hours and four minutes, is once more in the swim.

In an exclusive interview via long distance phone with this reporter, Pierre, at his home in Hermosa Beach, Cal., announced today he would contest any record made during the coming summer by Shirley Mae France or any other successful channel swimmer.

"I have only best wishes for Miss France or any other human seal who tries the channel swim," Pierre, the seal human, barked from the West Coast.

"But I think, in all fairness, Miss France or any other challenger should swim the channel as I did—no hands. In fact, if Miss France or any other contestant uses his hands in the channel swim, I shall immediately contest the record," Pierre continued.

The seal's statement was prompted by the opening of the 1950 English channel swimming season — oddly enough — deep in the heart of Texas where Miss France, 17-year-old hopeful from Somerset, Mass., has begun training at Lake Texoma. Miss Frances failed last year where Pierre succeeded so brilliantly.

"SHE'S a nice kid," said Pierre, with a leer in his voice that could be heard all the way from California. "I'm willing to admit she's prettier than I, if you like girls, even if she doesn't swim as well as I do."

"I trained on a strict diet of fish. It worked for me, and I strongly advise it for her. I used the Catalina crawl, known out here as the 'slap-flap,' which she would do well to emulate."

Asked if he had any other words of advice for Shirley Mae, Pierre said that while in training he had given up dancing, stayed out of night spots and trained conscientiously.

Pierre also warned Shirley Mae that it's cold outside in the channel and advised her to wear a seal skin coat, as he did on his own sensational crossing.

"It isn't the swimming that's so hard in this channel racket," Pierre confided. "I could have swum the channel in half the time if the darn fools in the official boat hadn't been throwing herring at me."

"It's the diving for herring that makes the swim strenuous and somewhat tedious. Those fools tossed 33 herring at me and I hardly had the strength left to make that last mile to the English coast. If I were Shirley Mae or had it to do over again, I would nix the herring."

PIERRE noted that Miss France's father is once more master-minding his daughter's training camp and said he would gladly send his father down to give Mr. France some helpful hints "except that my old man has a run of the road contract at present with the circus."

"I got ten G's just for saying, 'Pierre Cillon has switched to booze' after the swim," he boasted. However, he ruefully admitted, easy come, easy go.

"I got to feeling my herring after the swim," Pierre said, "and began throwing the folding stuff away like seaweed."

His final advice to Shirley Mae is to save her money and not end up, as he has, with nothing to show for his record-breaking feat but a couple of fins.

64 Million Set For Aid To Asia

Indo-China, 4 Other Nations To Get Help

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—The United States is putting the final touches on an urgent new $64,000,000 program of economic aid for Indo-China and four other southeast Asia countries.

This came to light today following the pledge by Secretary of State Acheson at Paris to speed arms and economic help to Indo-China, scene of a shooting war with Communism.

The Administration blueprint for reinforcing five eastern non-Communist governments was outlined by responsible officials in this fashion:

From left-over China aid funds the $64,000,000 is to be shared over the next 15 months by Indo-China, Burma, Indonesia, Thailand and Malaya in the form of machinery, tools, health supplies, and technical assistance. Indonesia has been allotted the largest share, $23,000,000.

Department President Talks To American Legion Auxiliary

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND ITS AUXILIARY were depicted as makers of a better community by Mrs. Carl C. Oyler of Fostoria, department president of the auxiliary, at a dinner meeting of the Salem unit Tuesday evening in the Legion home.

Discussing activities of the organization's service program, Mrs. Oyler stressed the importance of Poppy Day, which is always observed the Saturday before Memorial Day. "Poppy Day means memory and money," Mrs. Oyler said. The poppy is the American Legion's memorial flower and the money received from its sale goes to aid disabled veterans.

"The first instance of wearing poppies in honor of the war dead occurred in New York City Nov. 8, 1918, when Miss Moira Michael of Athens, Ga., appeared with one on her coat," Mrs. Oyler explained in tracing the day's history.

In the summer of 1920, Miss Michael returned to her home in Georgia and interested members of the American Legion there in the idea of wearing poppies in memory of the war dead. After the Georgia department of the American Legion adopted the poppy as its memorial flower, the Georgia delegation took the idea to the Legion's National Convention in Cleveland in September, 1920, and there the poppy was adopted as the national memorial flower of the Legion.

Disabled veterans who make the poppies derive double benefit from the work. First, it gives them employment, their only chance to help support themselves and their families. Second, the work is of real value in aiding their recovery.

Funds secured from the poppy sale constitute the largest source of revenue for the rehabilitation and child welfare work of the Legion and its auxiliary.

Mrs. Wade K. Baum of Cleveland, department vice president, another distinguished guest, touched on the membership goal of the state organization and complimented the local unit on its membership work. The department quota has been filled, although the national has not.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. William Gill and Mrs. Ronald Sommers, president and vice president, respectively, of the Minnesota unit and Mr. Baum of Cleveland. Mrs. Gill gave a short fraternal talk. Harmon Zepernick, 10th district commander, and member of Charles H. Carey post, gave greetings.

Janet Lehman and Nancy Stockton sang two duets, "I heard a Forest Praying" and "The Blue Tail Fly," with Dorothy Pozniko at the piano. Mrs. Chester E. Kridler, president, who officiated, introduced the speakers and guests.

Mrs. Lawrence Sanders and Mrs. Francis H. Waiwale are chairman and co-chairman, respectively, of the Poppy Day sale. Their assistants include:

Mrs. Ray Pearce, Mrs. Frederick S. Barckhoff, Mrs. Donald Johnston, Mrs. John Herman, Jr., Mrs. A. B. Combs, Mrs. John Grubbs, Mrs. Howard McDonald, Mrs. Kridler, Mrs. R. W. Broomall, Mrs. Harold Wykoff, Mrs. Henry Schultz, Mrs. John Litty, Mrs. Alice Bye, Mrs. Lee Hollinger, Mrs. John Horn, Mrs. Arthur Shinn, Mrs. William Needham, Mrs. Matilda Miller, Mrs. Alton Bye, Mrs. Russell Schaefer and Mrs. Roy Leslie.

The post and auxiliary are co-operating in giving a spring festival May 17, 18, 19 and 20 for the benefit of the building fund.

Husbands of the members were guests. The speakers table was beautifully appointed in pastel shades and centered by a large arrangement of spring blossoms. Dinner was served by a committee composed of Mrs. Harold Wykoff, chairman; Mrs. Margaret Clunan, Mrs. Lloyd Firth, Mrs. Charles Haldi and Mrs. George Slocum.

Band Mothers End Season With Dinner

CONCLUDING the 1949-50 season, the Band Mothers held a beautifully appointed dinner party Monday evening in the home of the retiring president, Mrs. H. M. Butcher, on the Salem-Leetonia rd.

The home was resplendent with spring flowers, and flowers were also used on the buffet table from which dinner was served to 30 members and one guest, Mrs. Howard Pardee.

Mrs. Robert Dunn, elected president last night, will direct the activities next season. She will be assisted by Mrs. Howard Firestone, vice president, and Mrs. Charles Ward, secretary, and Mrs. Bertha Wolf, who was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. Lester Lehman and Mrs. Harry Abrams, are retiring vice president and secretary, respectively. Opening session of the autumn season will be held Sept. 11.

Christian Scientist Uses Psalm In Talk

EARL E. SIMMS, C. S., of Austin, Tex., who gave a lecture on "Christian Science: Divine Love In Action" in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening was presented by Elmer Rufer, first reader of the Salem society, which sponsored the lecture.

Mr. Simms used the 23rd Psalm as the nucleus for his lecture. "The psalms in the Bible contain highest expressions of religious and moral sentiments," he declared.

"Psalms in which the first personal pronoun I appears are known as the 'I' Psalms. In most cases the 'I' refers to the individual. The much-loved 23rd Psalm is a clear example," the lecturer said.

"It is worthy of note that this is a prayer solely of affirmation. It declares what God is and what He does for man. It tells the complete story of each individual's experience under the compassionate influence of divine love."

"As we study and comprehend the spiritual import of this Psalm, it becomes our own spiritual biography. It is after this manner we feel its healing power," he avers.

A group from the Salem society attended a lecture in Alliance Monday evening given by James Harry McReynold of Dallas, Tex.

Death Tonight For McClure

'Last Resort Court'
Fails Murderer

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—Theodore Roosevelt McClure, Jr., saved once from the electric chair by a dramatic last-minute reprieve tonight was to die for slaying a Cleveland grocer.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche, who granted a reprieve last March 10, announced yesterday he will not intervene again.

The 60-day stay was granted to give the "Court of Last Resort," a chance to check into McClure's case. The "Court" investigates cases where a miscarriage of justice is suspected.

A lie detector test Saturday climaxed the investigation. The 24-year-old Cleveland was told the test indicated he did not tell the truth.

Then McClure calmly admitted that he shot the grocer, Nicola Salupo, in 1947.

The governor said: "The facts and circumstances surrounding the conviction of Theodore Roosevelt McClure of first degree murder are of such character that the law will have to take its course without intervention on my part."

So yesterday McClure ordered his second "last meal."

For his "last meal" today, McClure ordered fried chicken, fried oysters, sliced tomatoes, French fried potatoes, rolls and butter, French apple pie, vanilla ice cream, coffee, and six bottles of a soft drink.

'STRAINED RELATIONS' IN CROSBY HOUSEHOLD.—Crooner Bing Crosby and his wife, the former Dixie Lee, shown together at Hollywood, Calif., Santa Anita Park in 1945, are suffering from "strained relations," Crosby's attorney disclosed May 8. Rumors and gossips have reported the Crosbys separated maritally, but the attorney said there has been no property settlement and that the whole matter is in abeyance until Bing returns from Europe next month. He added that he hopes to effect a reconciliation.

Seized Slots To Be Inventoried

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—The state liquor department today was to give the state liquor board a "complete and comprehensive inventory" of about 420 slot machines seized and still held by the department.

Four of the slots caused tempers to flare and voices to rise yesterday.

Board Chairman Frank M. Krebs asked why the slots, seized during a raid on the Minerva Moose Lodge No. 915, were not before the board as evidence. Anthony A. Rutkowski, enforcement chief, said the basement storage room was so crowded four specific slots could not be dug out on short notice.

The board recently directed seized slot machines must be introduced as evidence.

Oscar L. Fleckner, liquor department director, assumed the role of peacemaker and said the department had no intention of ignoring the order.

"But the fact is," he said "the large number of slot machines in the basement property room, which is highly disorganized, makes it physically impossible to produce the machines as ordered by the board."

"I hope before tomorrow night to turn over the list to the board and ask for permission to destroy certain machines in an orderly manner. I hope this can be done before the end of the week."

Ohio Has Deficit Spending In 10 Months Of Current Year

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—Ohio spent $33,000,000 more from its general fund and took in $577,447 less from sales taxes in the first ten months of the fiscal year.

The report by Finance Director H. D. Defenbacher compared figures with the corresponding 10 months a year ago. They stacked up like this:

Money spent from the general fund to run the state government from July 1 through April 30 totaled $252,871,474. The sum was $229,037,634 for that period a year earlier.

Net sales tax collections, the state's largest single source of revenue, were $89,422,553 for the 10 months, a dip of more than half a million dollars.

Defenbacher said other minor tax sources yielded a little more money than the year before. But receipts still fell $103,526 below the $165,406,000 anticipated.

Large items included in the increased expenditures were $6,000,000 set aside out of sales tax collections for retirement of soldier bonus bonds, $8,300,000 more for capital improvements, $3,200,000 additional for old age pension requirements, $1,100,000 more for the public employees' retirement fund, and $1,580,000 as the state's contribution to the police and firemen's relief and pension funds, a new item.

The report showed personal service and maintenance expenditures for the last 10 months amounted $62,456,115, or $123,009 lower than for the same period in the last fiscal year.

REFUSED RIFLE MONEY

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—The House today turned down a request by Rep. Burke (D-Ohio) for $275,000 to resume National Rifle matches at Camp Perry, O. Rep. McSweeney (D-Ohio) also urged inclusion of the sum in the omnibus appropriations bill. The matches ended during the war.

Steel Rushes To Fill Orders

Deliveries 2 To 6
Weeks Behind Needs

NEW YORK, May 10—(AP)—Steelmakers this week "are pulling out all stops in their race to catch up with demand," The Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly, said.

The publication reported that "new production records are being commonplace," with output this week again placed at 100.5 per cent of the industry's rated capacity.

Deliveries are running 2 to 6 weeks behind schedule with the average about 3 weeks, The Iron Age said. It added:

"The conversion market is booming and prices are fancy. Ingots are selling for $72 a ton, up about $25 in the past six months. Slabs are selling for $90 a ton, or $37 above the market. The end of this hot market is still not in sight."

"Gray market activity is increasing. But the tonnage involved is not significant compared with total production. It is also worth noting that the market will not support the high prices of two years ago, even though some of these people charge all the traffic will bear."

The Iron Age said the "best guess now" is that steel supply will not catch up with demand until late this year—and then maybe only for a brief period.

Study Group Urges Marion Reformatory

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—The penal study committee of the Ohio Program Commission today is on record for a minimum security reformatory at Marion instead of Grafton state farm.

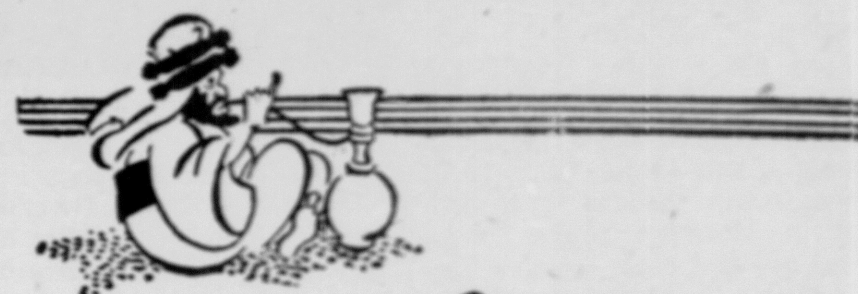

It asked the state controlling board to transfer $3,000,000 appropriated for the Grafton farm to the Marion reformatory, former site of the Scioto ordnance works and taken over recently from the federal government.

The committee said it feels the Grafton farm does not have a water supply adequate enough for an additional reformatory. The state welfare department made a similar request to the controlling board recently.

Game Wardens Arrest 9 For Violations

Four Salem men, charged with attempting to take fish from Cherry Creek dam at Washingtonville by the use of carbide, were fined $100 and costs each when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Harry Walker of Canfield. Half of the fine was suspended in each case.

The defendants, Harry Bruderly of R. D. 5, Salem; Richard Kelly of 229 Ohio ave., Carl DeLand of E. State st. and Ray Scullion of 251 N. Ellsworth ave., were arrested by Columbiana County Game Warden Lon Borning and Mahoning County Game Warden Earl Ressler.

Five other game violations were reported today.

Joseph Hahn, 38, of R. D. 1, Canfield, and Joseph Roth, 28, of Youngstown, charged with fishing in Meander refuge, were fined $50 and costs each by Justice Miller Foulk of Lake Milton. Game Warden Earl Ressler and Meander Game Warden Ellwood Ressler made the arrests.

Joseph Maki, 43, of Struthers, and George Stock of North Lima, were arrested on a charge of catching suckers with their hands in Burgess Creek in Springfield Township, were fined $15 and costs each by Mayor Lawrence Foust of New Middletown.

William Prest, 20, and Donald Prest, 20, of Youngstown, charged with fishing in Lake Milton without a license, drew fines of $15 and costs each in Justice Foulk's court at Lake Milton.

Stock Exchange

No Trend Definite At Opening Today

NEW YORK, May 10—(AP)—The stock market opened today with no sign of a definite price trend.

Trading was brisk but price changes small and mostly limited to minor fractions. Gains and losses were fairly well divided.

Even the stocks of railroad systems affected showed little response to the strike of firemen which started this morning.

Marked down were American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Dow Chemical, Radio Corp., Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, and U. S. Steel.

Nudged up a bit were Sinclair Oil, Republic Steel, General Motors, Studebaker, U. S. Rubber, Barnsdall Oil, American Cyanamid, Eastman Kodak, Westinghouse Electric, and Union Carbide.

Committeeman William Schaeffer was not present when the picture was taken. Six of these signs were placed near Salem.

Atomic Scientist Denies Red Meeting

OAKLAND, Calif., May 10—(AP)—Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer flatly denies the accusation of a woman ex-Communist that the top atomic scientist held a secret, closed meeting of Communists at his Berkeley home in July, 1941.

Mrs. Paul Crouch, admittedly a Communist from 1929 to 1942, told a state Senate committee here yesterday that she attended such a Communist meeting at Dr. Oppenheimer's home when he was in the physics department of the University of California.

Last night in Washington, Dr. Oppenheimer, now director of the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton, N. J., denied it. He said in a statement: "I have never been a member of the Communist party. I never assembled any such group of people for any such purpose in my home or anywhere else. I am unable to recall any gathering in my house that could reasonably have been mistaken for such a meeting."

Five Cars Damaged On Salem Streets

Five cars were damaged in a trio of accidents on city streets Tuesday, police reported. No one was injured.

Robert Bradley of the Damascus road opened the left front door of his parked car on N. Lincoln ave. at 7:45 a. m. today and a passing car driven by Walter Kastenhuber of R. D. 4, Salem, hit the door. It was torn loose.

Autos operated by Marion F. Stratton of R. D. 4, Salem, and Lawrence Geiger of New Springfield collided at the corner of E. Third and N. Ellsworth ave. at 1:15 a. m. Tuesday. Police said Geiger failed to stop on Third at the intersection and hit the left rear wheel of Stratton's car. The latter lost control of his vehicle and it went up over the curb, blowing out two tires.

Damage was inflicted to cars driven by Harry Braha of Detroit and Fred Eastham of R. D. 2, Beloit in an accident at the corner of W. State and Howard ave. at 3:49 p. m. Tuesday.

Eastham drove onto State from Howard and hit the left rear corner of Braha's auto.

Motorist Slightly Hurt In Mishap Near Rogers

In the single accident investigated yesterday by local state patrolmen one man received minor injuries.

Thomas G. Briggs, 32, of Newell, W. Va., suffered back and shoulder injuries received at 4:20 p. m. on the Clarkson-Rogers road, when he attempted a left turn in his car which was struck in the rear by a car driven by C. F. Crawford, 18, of Rogers.

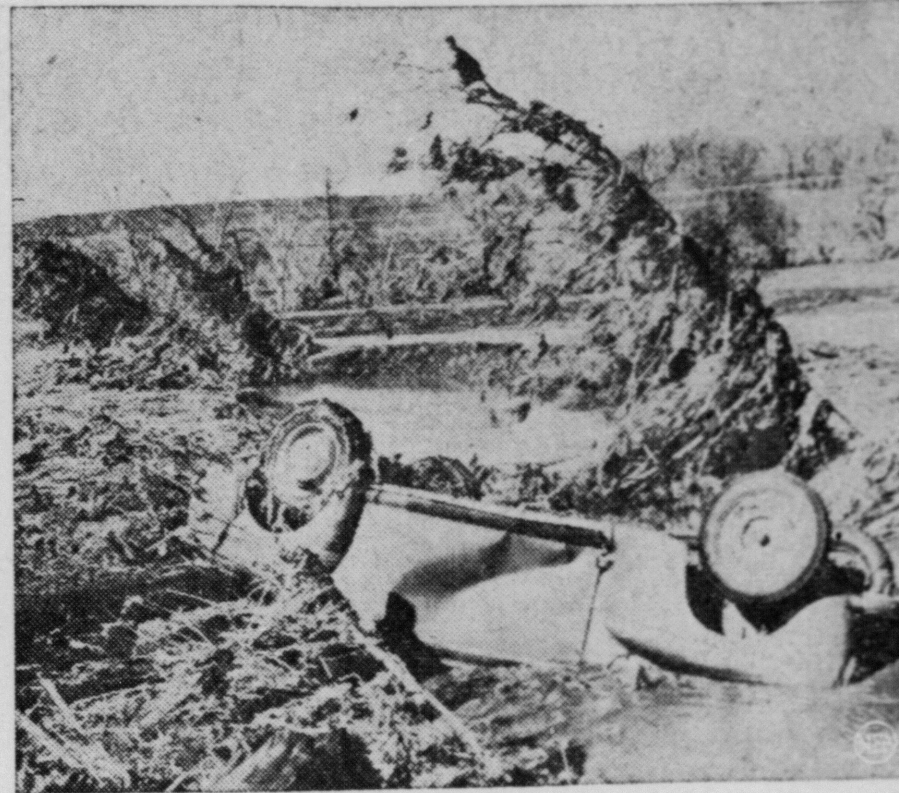

Both cars were slightly damaged. Briggs did not require hospital treatment.

DiMag's Slump Has Yankee Team Concerned

Joe Has Only Two Hits For 22

Ralph Kiner Hits Two Homers In Pirate Win

By JOE REICHLER
What's wrong with Joe DiMaggio?

The star outfielder of the world champion New York Yankees, one of the greatest and highest paid figures in the game, is in the midst of one of his worst batting slumps.

Not only does it have Joe worried, it has the entire Yankee team concerned.

DiMaggio is the first to tell you that he's never felt better in his life. No aches, no pains, no back trouble and no sign of the heel disorder that kept him out of the first 65 games of the 1949 season.

What then is the reason for his current puny .247 batting mark? The Yankee Clipper would give a large chunk of his $100,000 salary to know.

"I can't explain it," he said before last night's game against the St. Louis Browns. "All I know is that my timing is off. There is absolutely nothing wrong with me physically. I had a great spring. I'm in perfect condition. My weight is just right. I suppose I need more batting practice."

Joe, nearing 36, got in some extra lifts before the game. Still he went naught for four, as the Yankees defeated the Browns, 4-2. Lefty Ed Lopat pitched a three-hitter for his third triumph.

RALPH KINER, National League's home run king, went on another batting spree last night. He blasted two home runs, one with the bases full, to defeat Brooklyn almost single-handedly. Kiner's sixth and seventh homers of the season enabled the Pittsburgh Pirates to overcome a 5-0 deficit and whip the Dodgers, 10-5.

Kiner's grand slammer, which came in the bottom of the eighth, was his second of the campaign and eighth of his big league career.

Only Rogers Hornsby, the old St. Louis slugger, and George Kelly, former New York Giants first baseman, made more. Hornsby hit 12 and Kelly 10. Lou Gehrig, famous Yankee first baseman, hit the most in the majors, 23.

Mel Parnell pitched the Boston Red Sox into a first place tie with Detroit in the American League, defeating the Tigers, 6-1. Walt Dropo, subbing for the ailing Billy Goodman at first, hammered his second home run in eight games for the Sox.

Lloyd Hittle turned in a 3-2 victory for Washington over the Chicago White Sox in his first start of the season.

Lefty Johnny Schmitz hurled the Chicago Cubs to a three-hit 6-0 shutout over the New York Giants. Giant Manager Leo Durocher, second baseman Eddie Stanky and pitcher Sheldon Jones were ejected from the game during a seventh inning argument.

LaMotta On Verge Of Losing His Title

PATERSON, N. J., May 10—(AP)—Commissioner Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing Association today telegraphed middleweight champion Jake LaMotta to name the man he intends meeting in a title fight June 14.

Col. Harvey L. Miller, executive secretary of the NBA Washington headquarters, began a mail-poll of the NBA's executive committee on the Pennsylvania proposal to strip LaMotta of his title forthwith.

If LaMotta does not "cooperate" with the NBA by quickly naming the man he will give a shot at the title in Yankee Stadium on June 14, it's a 10-to-1 bet the NBA poll will belt him off the middleweight throne.

And if the man he names does not appeal to the dozen or so members of the executive committee as a "logical contender," the committee may vacate his title anyway.

The poll was necessitated by yesterday's request from Pennsylvania Commissioner John (Ox) Dagrada for a debarring of the "Bronx Bull." Dagrada announced that the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission had vacated LaMotta's title and would recognize as world middleweight champion the winner of a 15-round bout between Sugar Ray Robinson and Robert Villmain of France at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium on June 5.

Dagrada asked that all other NBA states strip LaMotta of his title and recognize the Robinson-Villmain winner.

Cleveland Hits But A's On Top

Al Rosen Slaps Four Hits Including Homer

PHILADELPHIA, May 10—(AP)—Pitcher Bob Lemon and the law of averages will try to shake a four-game losing streak for the Cleveland Indians here tonight.

The Tribe has dropped four straight games since winning the first game of a Saturday double-header in New York, and they have skidded to sixth place.

Yesterday the Philadelphia Athletics, who for years have been sweetening the averages for other American League teams, hung a 9-8 beating on the Tribe.

Connie Mack's team ran through five Indians pitchers and rapped out three home runs, by Ferris Fain, Eddie Joost and Elmer Valo. The A's collected seven runs in the fifth inning off the huriling of Steve Gromek and Sam Zoldak.

Before the game Manager Lou Boudreau switched the Cleveland lineup again and although that produced 11 hits, it didn't produce enough runs to overcome the lack of Cleveland pitching.

BOUDREAU BENCHES Joe Gordon and Mickey Vernon. He moved Luke Easter to first base, sent Johnny Berardino to second and used Albie Clark in right field. Larry Doby, who suffered a groin injury Sunday at Washington, was replaced in center field by Thurman Tucker. When Jim Hegan suffered a bruised ankle in the fifth, rookie Ray Murray went behind the bat.

All that plus four hits, including a home run, by Al Rosen was not enough.

Now it is up to Lemon and the law of averages. Lemon, who has won two and lost one, will be opposed by Bobby Shantz, who had won one and lost two.

Hegan, whose .395 batting average has been leading the league, and Doby, who has been hitting at a .375 clip, may be back in the lineup tonight. Hegan was hit in the ankle by a pitched ball. But X-ray pictures showed no fracture.

Valo's four-bagger scored Hank Wyse and Paul Lehner, who had both singled for the A's in the fifth. Then Fain, Same Chapman, Pete Suder and Hermin Guerra scored on hits by themselves and Wyse and an overthrow.

Dale Mitchell scored Cleveland's first run in the third by tripling and then coming in on Easter's single.

Rosen singled in the fourth and scored on Berardino's single. In the eighth, Cleveland got five runs on three hits. Clark walked and was doubled home by Rosen. Ray Boone singled in Rosen. Then Berardino and Lemon walked after which Mitchell singled in Boone, Berardino and Lemon.

The National baseball league was organized in 1876.

ABC Directors OK Alteration Of Pins

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, O., May 10 — (AP)—A scoring break for the bowlers is in the making, if executive directors of the ABC have their way.

The directors, at a pre-convention session last night, put their stamp of approval on a rules amendment which would permit the rounding of the bottoms of the pins—a thing frowned upon and banned by the regulations since the American Bowling Congress was formed 50 years ago.

The amendment, which must get a majority of the votes of some 400 delegates at Friday's convention, would allow rounding of the bottoms on a 5/32-inch radius.

Directors said the change would make the pins topple a bit easier, and probably would do away with the maples which at times are prone to rock from side to side several times before settling on their present flat bottoms.

The executive body placed their okay on 10 other amendments which will come before the delegates, and declined to recommend three.

Among those recommended were:

TO RAISE the secretary's bond to $25,000 a year, with an additional bond of $150,000 to cover ABC tourney prize funds; to permit a fiber strip at the gutter edges next to the pins; to permit any kind of targets to be imbedded in the alleys some 15 feet in front of the foul lines; to approve plastic-bottomed pins; to require a manually-operated foul-calling device on alleys to supplement automatic devices should the latter fail; to give leagues the right to name only three officers, combining the secretary and treasurer jobs; to permit substitutions at any time during a game (present rules outlaw substitutions in last two frames, or at any other time except when the relieved player has an open frame); to permit the names of co-champions and awarding of duplicate prizes in case of a tie in state tournaments (they must roll off under present rules); and to permit a league representative at a city association meeting to cast as many votes as there are teams in his league.

Failing to get recommendations were proposed amendments to restrict the ABC president's right to name a nominating committee; to change the depth of gutters near the pins to permit more "kick" from the pins, and to permit teams to bowl their league series before a scheduled date.

The present rule is that teams unable to bowl on a scheduled night must roll their set after that date—and the directors decided that setup should be retained.

The Professional Golfers' Association has been staging championship tournaments since 1916.

Seek To Organize Girls' Softball Loop
Representatives of three girls' softball teams met Monday evening in the Memorial building and discussed plans for organizing a girls' league in Salem.

The teams interested are the Red Caps, A & P and Amvets. The group plans another meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Memorial building. Any girls interested are asked to attend.

PLACENTIA TO PRACTICE
The Lake Placencia baseball team, under the management of Joe Schwartzoff, will hold practices at 2 p. m. Friday and at 1 p. m. Sunday on the Placencia diamond.

All players interested are asked to attend the sessions. The team will be sponsored this season by the Homeworth American Legion.

The National Golfers' Association has been staging championship tournaments since 1916.

Strikes to Spare
Nosed out by two pins which were worth $100 apiece, Ruth May of Salem took second honors in the women's handicapped sweepstakes at the Maloney alleys in Canton, which ended Sunday.

Her score of 1658 was eclipsed on the final day by Ruth Henke of Elyria, who carded 1260. She rolled 210, 210, 247 and three games under 170 to win.

The Salem bowler won $300 for second place, while Miss Henke took home $500.

Quarter-finalists Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier, Lloyd Mangrum, Clayt Haefner, Ray Hill, Johnny Palmer and Henry Williams Jr. of last year's PGA also get in on free tickets, as do Walker Cuppers Skip Alexander, Ben Hogan, Chick Harbert, Dutch Harrison and Bob Hamilton.

FORMER CHAMPIONS Tommy Armour, Jim Barnes, Tom Creavy, Leo Diegel, Olin Dutra, Vic Ghezzi, Walter Hagen, Jock Hutchison, Byron Nelson, Henry Picard, Johnny Revolta, Paul Runyan, Gene Sarazen and Denney Shute also will be welcomed with open arms.

However, Hogan and Hagen of the aforementioned hot-shots probably won't participate in the championship affair, despite their automatic entries.

Hogan reportedly still is suffering from after-effects of the near-fatal highway accident in which he was involved last year. He is said to believe the 36 holes of competition required on several days of the tourney would be more than he could handle.

Hagen, a five-time PGA champion, will be around for the tournament, but only as a spectator.

Bobby Locke, the South African star, probably won't get into this year's tournament. He is back in the PGA's good graces, but reportedly has home commitments which he would much rather fulfill.

Chances are Snead will be favored to repeat in this year's firing. The Scioto layout, as planned for the tourney, is best described as "long and narrow."

The 18 holes will stretch 7,061 yards, a goodly distance for such "drive" artists as Snead, Lloyd Mangrum, Johnny Palmer and Jim Ferrier.

PGA Qualifying Rounds Slated

Golf's Lesser Lights Will Begin On May 22

COLUMBUS, May 10—(INS)—The nation's top play-for-pay linksmen are retouching and sprucing up their clubs these days for a special reason.

It's the $40,000 National Professional Golfers Association championship tournament to be staged June 21-27 over the Scioto Country Club course in Columbus.

Tourney opening day is still a month and a half off, but most of golfdom's lesser lights must take to the field in just two weeks for a shot at one of the 100 or so spots open to sectional qualifiers from throughout the country.

The sectional tournaments will be held May 22 through 29. To the winners will go a chance to qualify for the 63-man tournament proper and the possible winning of the $3,500 and Sammy Snead's match play championship.

Snead, of course, is the number one entry for the "mid-century PGA championship." He won't even have to go through the final 36-hole qualifier. Most of golf's other great names also are automatic entries. Al Watrous, PGA senior champion, and home pro Jack Grout get their berths through tradition.

Quarter-finalists Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier, Lloyd Mangrum, Clayt Haefner, Ray Hill, Johnny Palmer and Henry Williams Jr. of last year's PGA also get in on free tickets, as do Walker Cuppers Skip Alexander, Ben Hogan, Chick Harbert, Dutch Harrison and Bob Hamilton.

Indians To Give Away TV Sets Friday Night
CLEVELAND, May 10—(INS)—The Cleveland Indians will give away 10 television sets Friday night when the Tribe plays its first home night game of the season against the Chicago White Sox.

The game will be played under the Indians' new lighting system, which is said to equal the one at Detroit's Briggs stadium, called the best in baseball.

A TV set will be awarded every half inning until the end of the fifth inning.

Goshen Nine Wins 6th Over Leetonia

Goshen High's Mahoning county Class B champion baseball team scored its sixth consecutive win of the season Tuesday night, defeating Leetonia High 15-3 at Damascus.

The tilt was a first round game of the state Class B tournament. Goshen will play the winner of the Akron Ellet-Summit county champion game at noon Monday at Kent in its next start.

Dick Wyss allowed five hits Tuesday and struck out 12 batters. His own team backed him up with eight safeties and piled up a nine run inning in the third.

Wade Berger, Roger Stittle and Lee McCluggage each slapped out two hits.

Class B Softball To Start May 22

Only five Class B softball teams were represented at the manager's meeting Tuesday in the Memorial building, Joe Kelley reported.

He is seeking three more teams to round out an eight team league. Play will begin on Monday, May 22, he said.

The teams represented Tuesday included Capel's Waterson's, Friends, Schuster's Market and Julian's.

Teams interested in playing should contact Kelley. The entry will be closed when the league is filled.

RFC Transfer Hit By Foes

Truman's Other Changes Not Bucked

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—President Truman's plans to strip the Reconstruction Finance Corp. of its independence and its role in government home financing got a mixed reaction today from influential senators.

Mr. Truman seemed most likely to encounter trouble on his plan to transfer the huge lending agency to the Commerce Department, where it would function as a separate corporation under the supervision of the secretary.

Two other new plans appeared less controversial. One would transfer the Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA, or "Fanny May"), an RFC subsidiary, to the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA). "Fanny May" provides a secondary market for home mortgages insured or guaranteed by other government agencies.

The other would transfer to HHFA the RFC's control over government loans for the building and distribution of prefabricated houses.

Mr. Truman sent three plans, along with one vesting more authority in the chairman of the National Security Resources Board, to Capitol Hill yesterday. He said all were in the interests of better government.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said he still felt the lending powers of RFC should be abolished and the agency placed on a standby basis.

Taft made this comment last week when President Truman announced he would send the RFC reorganization plan to Congress as part of his five-point program to aid small business.

The Ohio Senator said the proposed transfers of RFC housing functions to HHFA "seem all right."

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), a frequent critic of the Administration's housing programs, remarked "I don't believe I have an great kicks on any of the plans."

Case Of OSU Killer Goes To Jury Today

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—A jury of 10 women and two men today will begin deliberating the fate of a former Ohio State University fraternity pledge on trial for his life.

Closing arguments in the first degree murder trial of James D. Heer, 21, Euclid, O., were scheduled to be wound up today.

Heer, who served two years in the U.S. Marine Corps after World War II, is charged with the fatal shooting of Jack T. McKeown, 21, Norwood, O., late managing editor of the campus newspaper.

McKeown also was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity; Heer was a pledge.

The jury will consider four possible verdicts.

Guilty of first degree murder, with the penalty of death in the electric chair if no recommendation for mercy is returned; second degree murder, life imprisonment; manslaughter, from one to 20 years, and acquittal.

Will Western Europe Fight?

Germans In West Berlin Appear Divided On Defense

(CHAPTER III)
By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, International News Service

A SUDDEN Soviet attack against Western Europe would meet with virtually no resistance from the Western German people as long as the German federal republic is barred from the Atlantic Pact defense system.

This is the current opinion of West German Federal Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Western Allied military leaders in Europe today.

Seeking an answer to the question, "Will Western Europe Fight," this correspondent visited Bonn, Berlin, Frankfurt and Heidelberg in the course of a European survey.

In an exclusive interview with Adenauer in Bonn, I asked the German chancellor:

"Do you think the German people would offer resistance in the event of a sudden Soviet attack against Western Europe?"

"No," he replied. "The German people would not offer any resistance under existing circumstances.

"They are entirely without weapons. They have suffered greatly on the psychological side. They have been given no clear assurance from the Western powers concerning any measures for the security of Western Germany."

"They are not allowed to make any contribution to the Western defense system. As long as this situation lasts, they cannot be expected to offer any serious resistance if Russia should suddenly attack."

AMERICAN and Western European military leaders with whom this correspondent discussed the question said they shared Adenauer's views.

However, 8 of 12 West Germans questioned by International News Service asserted they would personally fight if the Russians attacked.

Mayor Ernest Reuter of western Berlin said the people of the western sectors of that city would certainly resist Soviet military aggression.

Reuter recalled that the Western Berliners decided to combat the Soviet blockade of Berlin even before they were assured of American and British airlift aid.

He said: "I am convinced that our determination to defend ourselves encouraged the United States to create the airlift to help us."

"That is the sort of determination the people of Western Germany and Western Europe should show today. It is the only police for a people who want to be free. Freedom is not something granted or given by somebody else. It is something you must be prepared to fight for, if you want to retain it."

A 35-YEAR-OLD Frankfurt shop assistant named Heiz Truber said he certainly would fight with any weapon he could get hold of if the Russians invaded Western Germany.

"Three years in a Soviet war prisoners' camp convinced me there is absolutely nothing worse than Communism in this world," Truber said.

Walter Schoenefeld, a young barber's assistant, said he would resist a Russian invasion of Western Germany "not because I want to save Western Europe or help the Americans, but simply because of my own personal freedom which I know would be lost if the Soviets occupied all Germany."

A 42-year-old housewife, Gisela Strecker, said it was "up to the Allies to throw the Russians out if they invade Western Germany."

"Personally," she added, "I would prefer Communism to another war. I am so tired of the suffering, horror and wickedness of wars that I do not want to go through it again for anything in the world."

"If I fought a Russian soldier, I would do so only in self defense. If he let me alone, I would not bother him."

Heinz Springer, a 56-year-old worker, said he thought German resistance against the Russians would be useless.

"Nothing could be done to stop them if they invaded Western Germany," Springer added. "Those of us who were in eastern Germany in 1945 learned what the Russians do with anyone daring to resist them."

Because of favorable climate and soil, the world's populations long have been concentrated in northwest Europe and southeast Asia, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SIAMESE TWINS.—Canada's only surviving siamese twins, Brenda and Beverly Townsend, are to undergo a separation operation May 14, at Edmonton, Alberta. The five-month-old girls, shown here in an Edmonton hospital are joined by their livers, abdominal bones and ribs. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Townsend, Edmonton.

2 Assemblies Planned At Jr. High School

Two assembly programs have been scheduled at Junior High School this week. Seventh and eighth graders will see a movie, "Behind the Wheel." It is based on safe driving practices, learning to drive, basic driving rules, and other rules of the highway. Stanley Cosky is the announcer.

Grades one through six presented a music program today in the school auditorium. Miss Inez Heiser's first grade sang "In Fairyland" and "Tick-Tock." Polly Schmid was the first grade song "A Spring Medley" with Dennis Dean the announcer. Mrs. Ernest Horton's second grade presented "Stop and Go" and "Safety First." Dick Phillis and Russell Lottman were the announcers.

Other classes and their songs were: Mrs. Elizabeth Laughlin's second grade, "Nice Doggy, Nice Kitty," announcer, Ronald Kilmer; Mrs. Bettie Reichert and Miss Margaret Floyd, third grades, "Old Folks at Home," "Old Black Joe," and "Oh! Susanna; announcer, Carol Lee Conley; Mrs. Claire Early fourth grade, "Song of the Traffic Squad" and "A Surprise;" announcer, Dick Chamberlin; Mrs. Bertha Hoopes, fifth grade, "Trees" and "Old Zip Coon;" announcer, Charlene Rosenberry; Miss Geraldine Floding, sixth grade, "Merry Medley" and "Oh, Lovely Meadows," announcer, Bob Bernard.

Carol Wilde was the pianist and Mrs. Loren Early assisted. Barbara Patterson and Juliana Uterstadt ushered.

Three Cars Damaged In Two City Accidents

Three automobiles were damaged in two minor traffic accidents on Salem streets Monday, police reported.

A car driven by Harold Green of Bridgeville, Pa., swerved to the left to avoid a car pulling from the curb on E. State st. at 4:10 p. m. Monday and hit the left front fender of an oncoming vehicle operated by Margaret Birchak of R. D. 1, Salem. Both were slightly damaged.

An auto driven by Nora R. Laird of 156 Park Drive was damaged slightly when hit by another operated by Norman A. Pedersen of 1913 E. State st. Pedersen pulled from the curb on E. State st. at 5:38 p. m., hitting the right rear fender of the Laird car.

THIEVES ENTER GARAGE

Thieves who broke into the Quaker Motor Sales garage between 10:30 p. m. and 8 a. m. Tuesday stole a car radio and from $4 to $5 in change from the cash register, police reported. Entrance was gained by forcing a rear window.

AFL Gives Yes, No Answer To Unity Bid

PHILADELPHIA, May 9 — (AP)—The American Federation of Labor has given a "yes-and-no" answer to the CIO's latest proposal for unification of organized labor.

The answer to the CIO's proposal is "yes" provided unity is on a permanent and organic basis.

But if the CIO is thinking strictly in terms of a tentative and cooperative unification then the AFL's answer is "no."

AFL President William Green made clear his stand yesterday in a letter to CIO's Philip Murray.

ARTHUR LAKE, Dagwood Bumstead of Blondie radio broadcasts, remembers that May 15 is Straw Hat Day and goes slightly daffy trying to select a suitable model in New York.

GRAFMAR'S DENNISE has presented to her Chicago master a small fortune—nine pups, all rare Weimaraners like herself and the sire, Klarberts Alarick. Each pup, member of the aristocratic breed only recently introduced from Germany, is valued at $500. The jackpot belongs to Carl Schwieter who, as a dog-lover, values the pups more than their monetary value.

THE BELOVED TRAMP of yesteryear lives again in New York City as his son, Charles Chaplin, Jr. (left), gives his first and only imitation of Charlie, Sr. (right), on television.

THIS MEXICAN VILLAGE BARBER, who also is a musician, candlemaker and storekeeper, is kept busy in his spare time cutting the hair of Indians, who are reluctant customers.

FRANK PACE, JR., secretary of the Army, studies a huge photo-diagram of the proposed Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway project before testifying before the House Public Works committee on a bill which would provide funds for seaway.

GOING UP AND UP on the Hollywood roster of stars, Corinne Calvet of Paris soon will be seen in a new U. S. movie.

WHITE-WATER CANOEING

ROCKS, RAPIDS, TURNS or maybe a broken dam of long ago challenge white-water canoeists of the Appalachian Mountain club. This unusual sport is strictly seasonal—from the time ice breaks in New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Maine rivers until hot weather shrinks the streams. Each week-end club members run a course on a different river. Only the very expert finish the runs without shipping some water and getting wet feet. Spectators gather along the banks at the treacherous spots to watch the fun. Photos were taken on first 1950 run on Piscataqua river between New Boston, Goffstown, N. H.

Launching their canoes, white-water Appalachian Mountain club members start 4-mile run.

Canoeists, dressed to meet challenge of splashing water, hit a Piscataqua river rough spot.

Box lunch is enjoyed by club members at end of thrill-ride.

Winona

The old and new officers met at 10 a. m. Wednesday, May 3, when the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the local Methodist church. Plans were formulated at this time for the year's work.

Members enjoyed a covered dinner at noon. Mrs. William Cope, president presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Arthur Whinery led the devotions.

Mrs. Emmett Caldwell was appointed delegate to the North-east Ohio Conference of the Women's Society of Christian Service, to be held at Akron May 17. Mrs. Herbert Hanna is the alternate.

Two department directors appointed to fill vacancies caused by resignations are secretary of children's work, Mrs. Clarence Votaw, and secretary of spiritual life, Mrs. Frank Fultz.

Program chairman Mrs. Claudia Mountz was in charge, using the topic, "Christian Homes Around the World." Mrs. Lowell Whinery continued the review of the book, "Women of the Scriptures," by Moss.

Cathie and Cynthia Dusenberry of Washingtonville were recent visitors of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dusenberry.

New officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service were installed Monday at the morning worship service at the Methodist church. Fred Tozer was the pastor in charge of the installation service.

Mrs. Kenneth McBrien sang the dedicatory hymn accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Bennett on the organ.

Murray Burrell of Souix City, Ia., arrived Thursday with his sister, Mrs. Anna Evans, here.

Mrs. William Outland was hostess to an all-day sewing session for the American Friends Service Committee at her home Thursday.

The mother and daughter party will be held at the local Methodist church at 8 p. m. Friday. The evening's program is being planned by Mrs. Richard Stamp and her committee.

Other party arrangements are in charge of Group 3 of the Women's Society of Christian Service, with Mrs. Leland Johnson and Mrs. Lewis Niswonger as co-chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gamble entertained at dinner Friday evening, honoring his mother, Mrs. Rachel Gamble. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Livezey of Canfield and Mrs. and Mrs. Milford Mott of Arthurdale W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Heinbuch of Alliance were recent visitors in the Mr. and Mrs. Willis Heinbuch home.

Mrs. Heinbuch, who underwent a goiter operation at the North Side Hospital in Youngstown, returned to her home April 29 and is making a satisfactory recovery.

A good attendance was noted when the directors of the community play ground and other local residents met at the Methodist church basement Monday evening, May 1. President Gilmer Coffey presided.

By-laws were read and adopted and rules and play ground regulations were approved.

Mrs. Francis Hall is chairman of the supervising committee. The plan is for two mothers to be in charge every afternoon at the play ground during the summer months.

Tentative plans were made for the annual Strawberry Festival. The executive committee of the Flax Swatching Association has voted to turn over their funds on hand to be used to install the needed lights at the playground.

Columbiana

Structural steel for the second addition to the F. C. Russell Co.'s plant at the western edge of town is being delivered on the company's Pennsylvania Railroad switch. Work on the addition, which will be an extension to the west end of the plant, was recently postponed temporarily, but the steel had been ordered before the postponement.

A few weeks ago the company laid off about 125 employees, one-half its force, but has increased its present production by a half and recalled 45 of its idled employees. Its backlog of orders is steadily picking up.

The Columbiana plant is the company's No. 2 plant, the No. 1 plant being in Cleveland.

Rev. Harold L. Ogden of First Presbyterian Church of Salem was the speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Monday evening. "People should conduct mental housecleaning at times," he said, speaking on "Changing Your Mind."

"As long as you are alive, you must live," he continued, "so you might as well live right. Americans are masters of the mechanical gadget, but are not so perfect in the art of living. Half of this country's hospital beds are filled by persons who have no organic illness. Their minds simply need housecleaning."

A moving picture, "Ben Franklin Selling America," was shown. Bill Poulton, Bud Gaver, Bill Longshore and James Kidd presented instrumental music.

Rev. W. S. Longworth, pastor of the church, offered the invocation and pronounced the benediction.

Ford Sales Up

DETROIT, May 10.—(AP)—A 20-year high in sales of Ford passenger cars was reported by the Ford Motor Co. today for the first four months of this year. Ford said the sales totaled 388,323. This was the highest since the sale of 434,166 units in the first four months of 1930, the company said.

Questions and Answers

Q—What is the date of the rarest United States one-cent piece?
A—Rarest of all cents is that of 1799. One in uncirculated condition is known, and this was discovered in a London pawn shop years ago. Until then, no 1799 cent in mint condition was believed in existence.

200,000 Gallons of Paint To Be Used On Ohio Highways

Some 200,000 gallons of white and yellow paint will be applied to Ohio's highways beginning in early July but it won't be the work of vandals.

Preparations are now being made by the division of traffic and safety of the state highway department for the annual painting of center lines, lane lines and no-passing zone lines in keeping motorists out of hospitals.

The actual work is expected to start around the first of July and will probably be finished in December.

If anyone doubts that Ohio's system of roads and highways has failed to keep up with the state's general expansion, then ask any member of the highway department for facts and figures.

Here are some of the things he will tell you.

With the development of the motorized striper, pavement markings can be laid at the rate of 10 to 12 miles per hour. As much as 75 miles of line per eight-hour day can be applied by one of the six striper operated by the department.

In 1924 when the first striper was used by the department, less than 100 miles of center line needed to be applied on state highways. The walk-type striper of that era laid less than three miles of line per day.

Now, more than 10,000 miles of center lines and lane lines, and 3,500 miles of yellow no-passing zone lines are required.

The job will consume enough paint to give a new look to some 13,000 houses, figured on an average of 15 gallons per house. The paint is applied at the rate of 15 to 17 gallons a mile.

In 1939, Ohio adopted the standard system of the American Association of State Highway Officials for marking no-passing zones. A yellow no-passing or "barrier" line parallel to and on the right of the white center line indicates where overtaking and passing is unsafe because of limited sight distance.

In painting its state highways, Ohio used solid center lines and lane lines four inches wide, and four-inch yellow no-passing line. The no-passing line is separated from the center line by a space of three inches.

All of the 50,000 gallons of yellow paint and 70,000 of the 150,000 of white paint are of the glass bead type which is luminous under the rays of headlights.

The cost of the painting job for last year totaled $346,850.

NEW BUSINESSES UP

COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—Ohio's Unemployment Compensation law covered a record total of 75,658 workers in 1949. That's the report today from the State Bureau of Unemployment Compensation. The BUC said Ohioans set up 3,726 new businesses with three or more employees last year and 3,166 covered by the law went out of business.

Crop Forecast Dip Due In New Report

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—A government crop report is expected today to take a sizeable slice off the official forecast on the size of this year's winter wheat crop.

Dry weather and insect pests have caused new damage since the last estimate a month ago.

The report is scheduled to be issued at 2 p. m., by the Agriculture Department's crop reporting board.

Winter wheat production—which makes up about three-fourths of all wheat grown—looks now as if it will be the smallest since 1943, when 537,000,000 bushels were harvested.

But a large reserve from the past two years will assure the country of sufficient grain to meet its demands.

A month ago the department forecast the winter wheat crop at 764,000,000 bushels—a reduction of 121,000,000 bushels from its forecast of last December. Today's report was expected in private quarters to cut the estimate still further, perhaps as much as 75,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels.

Evidence Links Milk With Polio Spread

NEW YORK, May 10—(AP)—Some evidence linking contaminated milk with an outbreak of polio was reported today to the New York State Medical Society.

The report was given by Dr. Michael Lipari, district state health officer of Oneonta, N. Y. Polio generally is believed to be spread by intimate person-to-person contact. Dr. Lipari's study adds to suspicions that milk, not properly handled, sometimes may contribute to the spread.

It was not possible to pin down proof milk caused some of the polio cases, he said. But there have been other reports of possible milkborne outbreaks of the disease.

Protection of milk supply is one of the main health activities carried on by State Health departments. Dairies that don't meet high standards are closed down.

3 Men To Represent Friends At Meeting

Loren Pim, Glendon McKenzie and J. W. Whitton will represent the Men's Missionary Movement of the First Friends Church at the annual meeting of men's missionary societies in Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends May 19-21 in Columbus.

They were named at the Monday evening session of the movement in the church.

Herman C. Stratton, president of the local movement and also of the Yearly Meeting, and Clarence Townsend, secretary, will attend the convention. Mr. Townsend will be the convention organist.

Pictures were shown of Friends Mission work in India and were commented on by David Cattell, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Cattell, missionaries in India.

Henry Wolfgang, Lawrence McCluggage and Donald Roher were hosts. Their wives served lunch.

Changes Sought In Home Financing Aids

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—The Administration was reported today as ready to send Congress new proposals in the home mortgage field close behind its new program of aids to small business.

Some well-posted officials, declining to be identified by name, said the plan is to ask Congress in the next few days to:

1. Pass legislation permitting the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency (FHFA) to charter private mortgage corporations to buy mortgages which are guaranteed by the Veterans Administration (VA) or insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA).

2. Provide more money for the government's mortgage-buying agency, the Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA), and permit the President to shift it from the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to the Housing Home Finance Agency by the "reorganization" route.

3. Also provide more government funds for financing distribution of prefabricated houses, and permit shifting of the pre-fab program, too, from RFC to Housing Home Finance.
